Profile

I am a highly trained, multi-lingual Italian-Canadian composer and copyist, with extensive musical, administrative, research, customer service, coding, academic, project management, and teaching experience. I am a hardworking, serious, and considerate high-achiever, who excelled academically, and who is determined to perform at a high professional level. I work well both individually and in a team. I enjoy solving problems and assisting people through my work. Having lived in many countries I speak multiple languages, and I am open-minded and committed to diversity. I am seeking employment in the field of music education.

Biography

Toronto-based Italian-Canadian composer, theorist, copyist, and educator Massimo Guida was born in Modena, Italy, in 1990, and has lived in Canada since 2008. He completed his doctoral studies in composition at the University of Toronto in 2019, under the supervision of Professor Christos Hatzis. He previously also completed his undergraduate and Master's studies in composition at the same institution, during which he studied composition with Professors Norbert Palej, Alexander Rapoport, Chan Ka Nin, and Gary Kulesha, as well as classical guitar under Eli Kassner. Described as a composer who writes with “a particularly strong melodic inspiration” by La Scena Musicale in 2012, in 2015, his song cycle Confessions (2014) was the recipient of the Violet Archer Prize, while his choral work Infant Joy (2013) won the Mississauga Festival Choir Competition. His creative musical works and arrangements have been read and performed across Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom, Italy, France, Germany, and South Korea by numerous ensembles, including the North York Concert Orchestra, the Brantford Symphony Orchestra, the St. Lawrence String Quartet, the Mississauga Festival Choir, the Scarborough Philharmonic Orchestra, the Music4Life Ensemble, the Odin Quartet, Slow Rise Music, FAWN Chamber Creative, the Fujita-Ko Duo, the GamUT Ensemble, Alexander Panizza, James Devor, and the University of Toronto Brass Ensemble. A keen supporter of contemporary music in Canada, Massimo also served on the board of the Canadian League of Composers as an Ontario councillor between 2020 and 2022. Outside of composition, Massimo is deeply interested in music theory and web development. He has also been the recipient of several academic awards, including a SSHRC CGS Master's Scholarship, and multiple Ontario Graduate Scholarships for his Master's and Doctoral research on the music of late Romantic and twentieth century Italian composers Alfredo Casella and Giacomo Puccini. He presented portions of his doctoral dissertation on Puccini's Turandot (1926) at the 2020 University of Toronto Graduate Music Conference.
